Documentation: Curiosity to understand the child as an active protagonist of their growth and development processes

Thursday 18th June 2015 9am to 4pm

CESA Re-imagining Childhood 0-18 Research Schools Seminar with Jan Millikan

“Pedagogical documentation is a substantial part of the goal which has always characterized our experience: the search for meaning. To find the meaning of a school, or rather, to construct the meaning of a school, as a place which plays an active role in children’s search for meaning and our own search for the meaning of a school.” Carla Rinaldi,

Change of venue
Please note the venue change to Grange Golf Club, White Sands Drive Grange. There is plenty of car parking at the golf club.

Lunch
Morning tea and lunch is supplied. Please record any dietary requirements when you register on CESA Registration Centre

What to bring
Please bring some pieces of documentation e.g. images of learning processes, films (on your laptops or I Pads), notes, journals, children’s drawings, records of children’s responses, audio texts etc. etc. Bring whatever you have. We will spend time together with Jan to workshop the documentation process for the July exhibit.

Agenda will include:
- Children: Close to the Mystery of God & Schools as places of Research Julie Trinidad
- Reflections from the Mirror Schools
- Illustrations of children as the active protagonists of their growth and development processes Jan Millikan
- Seeing children anew; using Documentation Rita Garreffa St Joseph’s Hindmarsh
- Towards the Exhibit for Carla Selecting and analysing Documentation, Making Documentation shareable Questions and support as we move towards the exhibit in July

Registrations
Please ensure each participant registers by Wednesday 10th June 2015. Please retain your confirmation for your professional development files.