This workshop will include a tour of the Rosewater Trade Training Centre highlighting the collaboration between schools. A focus of the afternoon will be consideration of the new VET framework: Preparing Secondary Students for Work in terms of ‘collaboration’ and ‘confidence’. In particular, counselling/guiding students into subjects and VET pathways with consideration of future labour market trends.

Caroline Cleland, Master Career Development, BA, Dip.Ed, is a Professional Member of the Career Development Association of Australia and currently President of the SA Division. She has 40 years of experience in either education or career services working to inspire and empower individuals through many life stages. Roles have included secondary teaching, adult ESL and literacy teaching, working on the myfuture website, coordinating an education and employment program for homeless women, working with injured workers and presenting training sessions such as the ½ day labour market workshops run across Australia last year. In her current practice, she enjoys counselling a diverse client base seeking direction, transition, self-marketing or job application support.
